CAPTURED

BY STUDIO22

WHO AM I?

Hi! I'm Sam,

Photography for me combines everything am passionate about, my family, creativity, art and capturing important moments in time.

Although I am relatively new to the photography world, I am absolutely loving being involved in peoples lives through the art photography. I have a deep appreciation for the meaningful bonds forged during each unique photography session.

I am a mum to two cheeky children and understand how children act so there is no pressure, my aim is to capture their individual personality's to cherish for years to come.

Like anything in the art world, I provide a unique style of photography and aim to capture images that are simple, natural and true. I want you to feel comfortable and relaxed, each session is based on fun and laughter so don't worry about having to sit still for a long period of time all sessions are fun and relaxed.

If your looking for someone to capture your special moments, who is fun, easy going then I may be the one you a looking for.
